Company Terms & Conditions:

Terms & Conditions

The terms and conditions below apply to all events booked through Prescott Shooting

Explanation of Terms:

"Prescott Shooting" - Prescott Shooting, Offices: Manor Farm Prescott, Cheltenham, Gloucestershire GL52 9RE

"Client" - The individual or company which has placed the booking on behalf of the "Party".

"Party/Guests" - The individuals to whom the activities or services will be provided.

"Supplier" - The Contracted Party used to fulfill a service or activity contained in the booking.

"Event" - All aspects of an activity booking requested by the Client which is confirmed in the Booking Confirmation.

"Contract" - The agreement between Prescott Shooting and the Client which comes into existence when Prescott Shooting accepts the deposit from the Client and issues the Booking Confirmation in writing or orally.

"Website" refers to www.prescottshooting.com

"In Writing" - Includes correspondence by letter or email.

Prescott Shooting reserve the right to withdraw or change these Terms and Conditions prior to issuing a Booking Confirmation. The Terms and Conditions are accepted by the Client to the exclusion of any previous Terms and Conditions.

By entering into this agreement for the supply of services the parties agree to be bound by the terms and conditions contained herein.

Pricing - the price of the event is as stated in the initial enquiry. Prescott Shooting reserves the right to change the price prior to issuing a Booking Confirmation. All prices are inclusive of VAT unless stated otherwise.

Booking and Payment Terms - The Client will confirm either in writing or orally that they wish to accept the booking. Upon receipt of a specified non-refundable deposit Prescott Shooting will issue a Booking Confirmation.

The Client is responsible for checking that the details are correct. Activities may not be substituted for different activities without incurring amendment charges unless the Booking Confirmation is incorrect. Prescott Shooting cannot accept liability for any errors in the Clients Booking if not notified within 7 days from the date of issue. The deposit is payable on booking and is non transferable and non refundable. For all events a 50% deposit is required at the time of booking. The balance is due 14 days prior to the event date. Payment for the event booked less than 14 days prior to the commencement date is due in full on booking. Prescott Shooting reserve the right to consider failure to make payment of the balance on the due date as a cancellation and reserve the right to re-sell the event with no liability to the Client other than the loss of their deposit. Payment can be made by cheque, BACS or card. Cheques are payable to 'Prescott Shooting'. Any cheques which do not clear on presentation will be subject to a charge of £20.00. All Credit Cards are subject to a 3% charge on the transaction amount. American Express is not accepted.

Amendments to the Booking by The Client - Prescott Shooting will make the effort to make an amendment to all or part of the booking where requested by the Client. This may incur additional costs as a result of the changed items in the booking. Amendments cannot be made within 14 days of the commencement of the event date. Amendments must be requested in writing. Should the booking reduce in numbers after receiving the Confirmation, please refer to the cancellation charges in the Terms and Conditions.

Amendments to the Booking by Prescott Shooting- If Prescott Shooting cannot provide all or part of the event due to circumstances beyond our control the Client will be notified of any changes as soon as possible. Prescott Shooting reserve the right at its sole discretion to alter or change arrangements should it be necessary to do so and shall have no liabilities to the Client.

Special Requirements - Prescott Shooting will be pleased to assist with any special requirements wherever possible. Some events include meals. If any members of The Party have special dietary requirements, allergies or access requirements this information must be provided no later than 14 days prior to the commencement of the event date.

Participant Requirements - Due to the nature of many events run by Prescott Shooting it is essential that the following rules apply:

All guests must conduct themselves in a courteous, proper and safe manner at all times.

All guests must listen and obey instructions given by our staff or contractors.

All guests must dress in the correct clothing and use all safety equipment as instructed.

All guests must agree to compensate us or our contractors for any costs incurred due to improper behavior during your time at the Shooting School.

All guests must inform us of any medical conditions that may affect your participation in any activity.

All guests must take responsibility for removing themselves from any event or element if they do not feel competent to participate.

Under no circumstances will guests be allowed to participate in an activity if under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

Prescott Shooting and any other third Party Suppliers retain the right to terminate the whole event or any individual activity if, in our opinion, the behavior of the group or an individual is threatening the safety or enjoyment of any other persons. The group or individuals involved will not be entitled to any refund in such circumstances.

Event - Should any equipment break down Prescott Shooting School will make every effort to repair but some breakages may not be repairable on the day. No refund will be made in this situation. Spare equipment is usually available.

Safety - A safety briefing will be carried out at the start of each activity session which the whole Party must attend. Individuals who fail to attend the safety briefing will not be allowed to take part in the activity and will not receive a refund. Safety equipment will be provided for each activity. The Party must wear sensible footwear including but not limited to walking boots, boots or trainers. High heeled footwear, open toe footwear and sandals are not suitable. Prescott Shooting accepts no liability for loss or damage to property in any event. The motorsport activities are non – contact activities and any member of The Party deliberately contacting another motor vehicle will be permanently withdrawn from the activity without refund. Prescott Shooting reserves the right to withdraw any member of The Party without refund from any activity where they are not complying with the safety briefing and are putting themselves or others at risk. The Party is required to abide by the rules and regulations as stated in the safety briefings.

Late arrival policy - All events run to a strict timetable and guests are required to be with us 15 minutes before event start. Late arrival might result in one of the following – either reduction of time on event, total loss of event or an incurred charge to cover additional staffing costs caused by event running over. Where event time is reduced or the event is lost due to late arrival or no shows, no refunds will be given.

Cancellation by the Client - Should The Party reduce in numbers following payment of the deposit, the deposit will be forfeited for those members of The Party not attending. Should the group number fall to less than the minimum group size for the number quoted then Prescott Shooting reserve the right to implement a surcharge for the difference. No reduction in numbers can be accepted within 14 days of the Event Date. If The Party or any member of The Party decides not to turn up or partake in any of the activities for any reason on the day, no refund will be given by Prescott Shooting. Refunds are only given where a Client cancels the booking within three working days of making the booking, provided the booking has been made more than 14 days prior to the activity date.

Cancellation by Prescott Shooting - Prescott Shooting may cancel activities in the booking if, for example but not exclusively, bad weather makes any activity unsafe, in which event Prescott Shooting reserve the right to substitute an alternative activity at short notice. Prescott Shooting may cancel activities in the booking at its sole discretion and will have no liability for any costs incurred by the client as a result of activity cancellation other than the difference between the price of the cancelled activity and price of the substituted activity.

Parking - Car parking is provided for The Party. Vehicles and contents are left at owners risk.

Insurance & Disclaimers - A disclaimer must be signed for many of the activities offered and failure to sign the disclaimer may result in the event being cancelled. Prescott Shooting accepts no liability in this circumstance. Some activities contain an element of risk including but not exclusively Off Road Driving, Clay Pigeon Shooting, Air Rifle Shooting, G.N.A.T Shooting, Fly Fishing, Archery & Crossbows. Prescott Shooting shall accept no responsibility whatsoever for injuries or loss incurred by and members of The Party, their guests or spectators. By booking with Prescott Shooting you understand that activities may contain an element of risk and that the activity venues have uneven ground which is often wet and slippery.

Complaints - Any complaints must be reported to Prescott Shooting at the earliest opportunity and no later than 7 days after the incident causing complaint. If Prescott Shooting is unable to remedy the problem to the satisfaction of the Client at the time the problem is reported, a written report of any perceived failure must be submitted providing full details.

Refund Policy - Deposits are non-refundable. Balance refunds are only given where a Client cancels the booking within three working days of making the booking, provided the booking has been made more than 14 days prior to the activity date.

Agreement - This contract shall be governed by English Law and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts. Any event booked with Prescott Shooting is booked in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. It is the sole responsibility of the Client to communicate these Terms and Conditions to The Party.
