Doug's Story (Oxford Gun Company)

The Schools Challenge has been one of the success stories of the last couple of years; it was the brain child of David Florent from the Oxford Gun Company. It all started to encourage local schools to come and practice for the nationals because it was difficult to find venues that would give the pupils the opportunity to shoot at a proper shooting ground under competition condition but we had lots of enquires from schools from all over the country. Due to the amount of interest Dave called on his old school friend Dan Martin from Prescott shooting school to help. They are old school friends and spent their schools days building a shooting ground at their school, Bredon School near Tewkesbury. A lot of the success of the schools challenge is now due to the support they have received from the gun trade and also from outside sponsors. Last year due to popular demand they had to expand the schools challenge to Tewkesbury, they have also added a two day game experience to the agenda; this includes a day's instruction on shooting and the etiquette of game shooting followed by a day at Waddesdon Manor Estate with the opportunity to shoot, beat and pick-up. This year will be even better with main sponsors Webley & Scott being joined by Browning and Stratstone Land Rover.

Bredon Fete and Country Fair Monday 4th May 2009

Clay shooting prizes up for grabs in excess of £1,500

Doug Sharp (was deputy headmaster now events manager) came up with the idea of a school fete with class rooms open showing the pupil's work, dormitories open to show parents the luxurious!!! Accommodation available to borders. The school farm open to show off there prize animals. A few stalls manned by pupils selling plants grown on the farm, books and brick-a-brake games and of course cream teas in the court yard. From these humble beginnings it quickly became the place to go each May Day!!! Not only for prospecting parents but also for local people to see this unique school. With Doug Sharps drive and enthusiasm it quickly grew and grew. They added clay shooting archery and air rifles. A pig roast, fair ground rides more and more activities run by pupils, x-pupils and some parent's helicopter rides vintage tractors and steam engines and more recently a complete country side arena with the opportunity to try most country sports and lots of shops selling all sorts of country goods. Open clay shoot attracting people with prizes on offer in excess of £1,500. In 10 years Bredon fete has grown from a few hundred attendances to 2,500 this year and still growing.

The Schools Challenge at Bredon School Sunday 3rd May 2009

Bredon is an independent, day and boarding school welcoming boys and girls of all abilities aged from 7 to 18. The school campus is based around the picturesque Pull Court mansion, which is set in 84 acres of landscaped grounds a few miles from the Gloucestershire market town of Tewkesbury.
